

WARD McALLISTER'S NIECE WEDS ACTOR

Mrs. Forbes Curtis, Relative of Astors, Marries Damon
Lyon.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—A romance in high society was revealed when Mrs. Forbes Curtis, niece of the late Ward McAllister, and relative of Mrs. William Astor, was married to Damon Lyon, an actor. It was the first wedding in the crypt of the new Cathedral of St. John the Divine, on Morningside Heights, and the first time Bishop Henry C. Potter ever officiated at the marriage of an actor.

Mr. Lyon and Mrs. Curtis first met some weeks ago at a recital. The actor had left Richard Mansfield's company and was giving a series of recitals, at one of which he saw Mrs. Curtis. It was a case of love at first sight, followed by a quick courtship.

Mrs. Lyon is a daughter of the late Dr. Samuel Francis, a pioneer typewriter inventor. Her mother was Miss Harriet McAllister, the only sister of the late Ward McAllister. She is a first cousin to F. Marion Crawford, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe and Mrs. Richard Aldrich, who was Miss Margaret Livingston Chanler. The bride is also a relative of Mrs. William Astor. She was one of the organizers of the Actors' Church Alliance.

IOWA'S GOVERNOR APPEALS FOR FAMINE SUFFERERS

Governor Cummins, of Iowa, responding to the proclamation of President Roosevelt calling upon the American people for contributions for the relief of the famine-stricken people of China, himself has published a proclamation, calling upon the good people of Iowa to contribute to the cause. Governor Cummins is the first State governor to take such a step, or at least he is the first of whom the National Red Cross in this city has any advice.

SWEET-VOICED BOY SINGER DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Francis J. Woodman, Jr., the only son of Dr. F. J. Woodman, died at the home of his father in this city Wednesday last after an illness of several weeks. Young Woodman was seventeen years old and possessed a fine baritone voice and was popular in musical circles. His body will be removed to Somersworth, N. H., his former home tomorrow, where it will be interred.

BURIAL OF S. B. STANSBURY TAKES PLACE TOMORROW

WENTWORTH FUNERAL AT THE WOODLEY

Funeral services for Miss Sophia Wentworth were held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Woodley, where Miss Wentworth had made her home for several years. Tonight the remains will be taken to Rochester, Miss. Wentworth's former home, for burial. Miss Wentworth was the last of her immediate family. She had been ill only a few days with heart trouble. On Wednesday she was compelled to remain in her room and grew gradually worse until late yesterday afternoon, when she died.

IMMIGRATION BILL MAY GET THROUGH

A compromise on the immigration bill is now believed to be in sight. President Roosevelt is understood to be willing to recede from his position for a rigorous educational test provision in the bill. Such a test was provided by the Senate, but rejected by the House. This has been the sticking point between the conferees representing the two bodies of Congress.
